J.C. Watts, Jr.
Chairman
4th District, Oklahoma

House Meets at 9:00 a.m. for Legislative Business

Anticipated Floor Action:

Motion to Go to Conference on H.R. 1501 (Consequences for Juvenile Offenders Act)

Motion to Go to Conference on H.R. 10 (Financial Services Act)

Motion to Go to Conference on H.R. 1501 (Consequences for Juvenile Offenders Act)

Floor Situation: Mr. McCollum or a designee is expected to offer a motion to go to conference on H.R. 1501 as its first order of business today. A motion to instruct may be made immediately after this request and before the chair appoints conferees. Instructions are considered the prerogative of the minority and are debatable for one hour.

Summary: The motion, if agreed to, will establish a House-Senate conference to resolve differences between H.R. 1501, which passed the House by a vote of 287-139 on June 16, 1999, and the Senate version (S. 254), which passed by a vote of 73-25 on May 20, 1999. Once agreed to, the motion permits the chair to appoint conferees. Details of a possible motion to instruct were unavailable at press time.

Views: The Republican Leadership strongly supports the motion to go to conference and opposes any motion to instruct conferees that would weaken the position of House negotiators.

Additional Information: See Legislative Digest, Vol. XXVIII, #17, June 11, 1999.

Motion to Go to Conference on H.R. 10 (Financial Services Act)

Floor Situation: Mr. Leach or a designee is expected to offer a motion to go to conference on H.R. 10 after the House completes consideration of the motion to go to conference on H.R. 1501. A motion to instruct may be made immediately after this request and before the chair appoints conferees. Instructions are considered the prerogative of the minority and are debatable for one hour.

Summary: The motion, if agreed to, will establish a House-Senate conference to resolve differences between H.R. 10, which passed the House by a vote of 343-86 on July 1, 1999, and the Senate version (S. 900), which passed by a vote of 54-44 on May 6, 1999. Once agreed to, the motion permits the chair to appoint conferees. Details of a possible motion to instruct were unavailable at press time.

Views: The Republican Leadership strongly supports the motion to go to conference and opposes any motion to instruct conferees that would weaken the position of House negotiators.

Additional Information: See Legislative Digest, Vol. XXVIII, #19, Pt. II, June 28, 1999.
